INTERVIEWING VANTABLACK GAMING

This is an archived document!

On May 20, 2024, I, tn12348, interviewed Vantablack Planetballs (now Vantablack Gaming).

For anyone wondering, he is an Indonesian YouTuber with 1.13 K subscribers as of December 2025. Here's the link: https://www.youtube.com/@Vantablack_Gaming

In 2024, he had involved in multiple controversies within the Planetball community and ultimately received criticism from many YouTubers.

I asked him 10 questions. I also tried to contact with Anda Planetballs, but he didn't respond.

Note that Vantablack has poor English grammar (because he's not a native English speaker), so don't harass him for it. Also, NEVER BRINGING THE PAST!

Tn12348: Hello Vantablack! I am tn, known as Tri Nguyen. I know there are many users named Tri Nguyen to suit themselves better, so I recommend you to call me tn.

I haven't known you until I heard of some controversies involving you according to Minitubia. Therefore, I am here to interview you to let me know how good is your Internet career. Are you ready? (There are 10 important questions)

Vantablack: The internet is difficult to control but good

Tn12348: Nice! Can I ask 10 important questions?

Vantablack: Yes

Interviewee: Vantablack Gaming

Interviewer: tn12348

Q1: Was there incidents or problems you had encountered since you started your YouTube channel? (on YouTube):

Vantablack: October 10 2020

tn12348: I mean yes or no? If yes, then whose enemies had harassed/bullied you when you met them?

Vantablack: Yes

tn12348: Ok, who had bullied you on YouTube?

Vantablack: @vantasucks

➔ RE: For your information, he referred to this YouTube channel, which is now deleted: https://web.archive.org/web/20240602222153/https://www.youtube.com/@vantasucks

Q2: Second question: Do you focus on Planetballs videos, meaning do you always make Planetballs video?

Vantablack: Yes but small chance

Q3: If you have copyright or community guideline strikes, can you resolve the situation to remove these strikes?

Vantablack: Community guideline strikes (i can't remove these strikes because violations if my content not contains violations, youtube will back my content). Every strike will be end in 90 days tn12348: Ok, you have a good chance to get one which is on your YouTube studio, to remove your strikes, but copyright strikes are used as a tool by owners who currently have copyright rules, so it can be difficult

In your thought, can you have your copyright strikes removed by discussing with people who copyright-striked you so they can lift these up and remove these?

Vantablack: Wait a strike end in july 12 2024

➔ RE: He doesn’t talk about the copyright strikes, but community guideline strikes.

Vantablack: In 2022 i got strike from samg content, then in 2024 i got strike again from community guidelines, ➔ RE: It means that he got community guideline strikes twice, one in 2022 and another in 2024.

Q4: According to your about section, viewers can oppose anything you have or you want or don't want to do.

What do you think if they do the opposite to you?

Vantablack: This is my description tn12348: so how do you feel if viewers do the opposite to your description?

Vantablack: quite satisfied

Q5: I have heard a bit of Zeta Planetballs and the drama between you and him, which I never took sides.

Vantablack: Because he is dox me when he is hater

➔ RE: It means that Zeta (now Anda) allegedly doxed Vantablack when they hated each other.

tn12348: Oh my. are there another reasons? Or you can give me a full list of reasons why you hate Zeta.

Vantablack: Because i tried to share my location then anda revealing my location and i removed my dox information after several months

➔ RE: It means that Vantablack planned to share his location, but stopped after being aware that doing this would make him vulnerable to threats(?), and Anda revealed his location several months later.

tn12348: Additionally, I also heard of a reason which you said that Anda spammed shorts to gain views and subscribers right? Do you think it is against YouTube's ToS?

Vantablack: Yes because if he get 100k views in one short, he will get 1k subs tn12348: That's a method of how he gains subs fast.

➔ RE: Well… that's how YouTube algorithm works. People wanted to see educational contents, which is why Planetball with genders contents appeared. Unfortunately, Polandball traditionalists, which are users who believed that, to draw Polandball, there must be no eyebrows and no circle and line tools, had hated it.

Q6: Do you prefer roleplaying on YouTube? Often in planetball community.

Vantablack: Like

➔ RE: Its like "Yes, often"

Q7: What is your favorite Roblox games? I saw you in Roblox.

Vantablack: Marble marmer tycoon. My kid play roblox in my phone then i remove roblox app ➔ RE: For those who are confused with this one, "My kid" refers to his sibling, and I didn't ask him what it meant.

Q8: What do you think of the current generation right now? (Generation Alpha)

Vantablack: Idk (maybe generation alpha is kid)

Q9: Many people heard about you because you had revealed Zeta's real name. However, your indirect supporters or critics was concerning (felt suspicious of it) because they said that Zeta doxxed you first. What do you think?

Vantablack: Zeta dox his name first in november 2022 then i dox my location in 2023

After finding the truth, I say this: No, you and Zeta did not dox yourself and himself, respectively, but you and him revealved your and his personal information. Additional part is: What to do to defend yourself from being doxxed? (Including Zeta too, he needs to be defended)

➔ It turned out that Zeta just shared the post of "Anti-bad user group" to believe that it belonged to Vantablack, but we actually didn't know whether it was real, but it belonged to somebody else.

Vantablack: I'm defended by scuti2, hyping, thebettersensist2011, and more from zeta doxxing my information

Q10: This is the tricky one. In the alternative future, you had encountered a commentator (refer to his) and his supporters make fun of you until you quit YouTube, but they have tricky ways to caught your attention and they can expose anything (that) you admitted your good or bad things. What should you do? And someone can expose your plan to remove your enemies (so you win), send your plan to your enemies, and then they are criticizing you. What's next?

Vantablack: Legendary eternal crasher v2 is back tn12348: Then what about your YouTube channel, they comment you and talk about your plan of removing them, which are your enemies. Well i hope you will be ok with the future scandal in the future

Vantablack: Legendary eternal crasher is removed due repeated violations

➔ RE: He didn't actually answer my question, but I think he used the mentions of the specific user to try to reflect my question, I guess.

tn12348: Ok, that's all I know. Thank you for participating my interview! Vantablack!
